Islas Secas
PANAMA

Tucked away in a tranquil corner of the Islas Secas archipelago, this exclusive, secluded resort with seven casitas accommodating up to 24 guests, and countless reefs, glassy bays and tree-swathed hills to explore – is the ultimate sustainable playground.

- Three Tented Casitas (one bedroom each)
- Casita Mirador (one bedroom)
- Casita Tres Palmas (two bedroom) and Casita Sombras (two bedroom)
- Casita Grande (four bedroom)
- Terraza, the heart of Islas Secas and a place to relax over drinks and to share meals along with tales of the day’s adventures
- Beautiful infinity pool and sun terrace offering incredible views of the Gulf of Chiriquí
- The Spa with two wellness tents complete with swing seats and soaking baths in a secluded jungle setting
- Activities & Watersports Center offering a full range of land and water-based adventures and excursions including diving

Stewardship

Considered an environmentally protected area under Panamanian law, Islas Secas prides itself on holding sustainability and stewardship at the core of its facilities, infrastructure and operation.

- 100% of the property’s energy is solar generated
- 100% of food waste is composted
- 100% of wastewater is reused for irrigation
- Islas Secas supports local community education and service projects
- The privately funded Islas Secas Foundation supports marine and wildlife conservation in the region

Getting There

Isla Seca’s private plane is the quickest and easiest way to reach the resort. Guests flying into Panama City are met on arrival and escorted through immigration and customs to board Islas Secas’ Twin Otter aircraft for a short 1h10min flight direct to the resort. Scheduled airplane transfers between Panama City and Islas Secas operate 3 - 4 times per week depending on the season (see below).

The Archipelago

Welcome to remote and wild Islas Secas – an archipelago of 14 islands located 20 miles of Panama’s rugged Pacific coast, waiting to be explored. With seven hundred fifty species of fish, 100 bird species, and 128 species of plants, and just over an hour boat ride from Colba National Marine Park, a UNESCO-designated protected marine area, this area is home to one of the largest coral reef systems in the Eastern Tropical Pacific. Islas Secas, with endless opportunities for sustainable adventure, is devoted to our natural surroundings, and our passion is to be a blueprint for nature-driven tourism.

WELLNESS AT ISLAS SECAS

At Islas Secas, mind and body are energized by all that is wild in our beautiful island setting. Immersed in flower-draped jungle, our open-to-the-elements wellness retreat offers a nurturing escape. From their secret-garden setting, surrounded by gnarled, over-draped trees, to the island-sourced products in our spa treatments, breathe deep and enjoy the elements. Home-crafted blends using natural ingredients such as coconut, jasmine and ylang ylang, create thoughtfully relaxing or energizing treatments. Peaceful morning yoga sessions are available in outdoor locations.

ADVENTURES ON LAND

Islas Secas is host to over 100 species of resident and migratory birds. Wander along two miles of trails with a naturalist guide and pore over rare flowers and plants, glimpse colorful birdlife and scurrying iguanas as you reconnect with nature. Discover a secluded beach: our adventure staff will transport you with a sumptuous picnic, cooler, lounge chair, umbrella - and a two-way radio. Stay as long as you like. Signal for a return when you are ready.

WATERSPORTS

Explore the big blue of this remote, pristine archipelago, through bespoke marine safaris, e-foiling, Pacific Ocean surfing, scuba diving with manta rays, whale-watching trips in season... or simply by drifting gently with a mask and snorkel over the kaleidoscopic reefs. World-class, unforgettable fishing awaits.
