Exquisite Interiors

- Reclaimed teak and recycled textiles, deep, linen-covered sofas, marine-influenced ceramics, colonial-style rattan chairs and local weavings showcasing local tribal patterns
- Fallen trees from the archipelago have been repurposed into beautiful furniture, while traditional artworks commissioned and handmade in Panama by the indigenous Guna tribe grace the walls alongside paintings from local artists.
- Bedrooms feature breezy four-poster beds and spacious ensuite bathrooms with geometric tiling, featuring floor-to-ceiling windows and huge balconies.
- Staggeringly beautiful ocean views come as standard.

“Islas Secas is a next-generation island experience. It unfolds as an entire unspoiled archipelago of 14 swoon-worthy islands rife with palm-fringed, gold-sand beaches and volcanic cliffs blanketed in native flora and bird colonies.”
